Top 20 psychics

Who can you trust?

P psychics must be judged by their performance records: How accurate have they been in the past? How much specific material are they able to come up with? What are their general working habits and claims? How fair are their fees?

Since I write books on psychic subjects, only those psychics personally known to me through test sittings or those whose reputation I have checked up on are included here. And so I leave, at your fingertips, a world of psychic power for you to explore...

Jane Doherty: Many of her clients return

Jane Doherty is a well-respected psychic in New Jersey. Once Jane received an image of a log cabin in Montana during a reading for a woman whose husband had passed away several months earlier. Puzzled, Jane asked the woman if she had ever been there and the answer was no. Several months later the woman returned for another reading and told Jane how she had fallen in love with the boarder in her house, who owned a log cabin in Montana! (908) 757-2508.
